

The Joseph, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Nashville

The Joseph, a Luxury Collection Hotel, located in Nashville's SoBro neighborhood, is a 21-story hotel defined by the unique combination of cultural and artistic diversity and memorable experiences. Conveniently located within walking distance of the Music City Convention Center. Arquitectonica designed the architecture and ArqGEO was the landscape architect for the porte-cochere, streetscape, 8th floor outdoor terrace, and the rooftop lounge and amenity deck. The Joseph carefully unites cultural and artistic diversity, history, design, and Southern Hospitality.

Perched on the 21st floor, the rooftop oasis features a 50-foot pool, plush lounge chairs, private cabanas, a living green wall, with restaurant/bar, and unobstructed views of the Nashville skyline and Cumberland River. The 8th floor meeting space opens to a 3,000 sf indoor/outdoor terrace bringing together many of the hotel's unique environmental offerings in one cohesive space.

Location: Nashville, Tennessee

---

Type: Hospitality

---

Services: Landscape Architecture, Green Infrastructure, Streetscape Design

---

Size: 369,000 sf / 34,300 m2

---